

Classic Wines

Castelli Romani DOC Bianco

The Castelli Romani is an important wine-producing area with distinctive characteristics well-known from ancient times. These vines produce a full-bodied wine with a strong character.

Wine details

Classification	Castelli Romani DOC
Type of wine.....	White
Grape variety.....	40% Malvasia - 40% Trebbiano - 20% Bellone
Alcohol content	12.0%
Sulphur dioxide.....	Less than 100 mg/l

Vineyard

Location	Cori's hills
Altitude.....	100 - 200
Soil.....	Volcanic - Limestone
Farming system.....	Low row and tendone
Yield per ha	130 - 140 qli
Vintage	10 - 30 September

Characteristics

Colour	Straw yellow
Bouquet	Fresh and distinctive
Taste.....	Harmonious, young and lively
Dishes	First course dishes and fish
Serving temperature	10 °C
Storing.....	In a cool, dry, dark place
Drinking	It is best consumed young